

Katja Maria Werker - mitten im sturm NEW: CD

Katja Maria Werker has made her début on Stockfisch with her new album, "mitten im sturm" ("In the Midst of the Storm"). This CD is a richly faceted album – squally periods followed by intermittent calm, the rise and swell of the waves: Katja Werker's own compositions; fresh, energy-laden pop songs ("Crossfire"), some English and German folk; notably a Peter Gabriel classic from the Seventies ("Here comes the Flood") not to mention an awe-inspiring rendition of the German hit "Über sieben Brücken must Du gehn". Each of the album's tracks is unique, and all are highly authentic; personal in the literal sense of the word.

Ralf Illenberger - Red Rock Journeys NEW: CD

With his new album Red Rock Journeys, a musician who can undoubtedly be classed as one of the greats of acoustic guitar music can now be heard on Stockfisch: Ralf Illenberger. On this CD are pieces which elude the shackles of musical genre; while ideal for quietly dreaming, they can also unleash a surprising amount of energy and drive. Red Rock Journeys takes the listener on an evocative journey to Ralf Illenberger's Sedona: A well-built house with expansive windows that pull in the light and a panoramic view of the landscape – both that without and that within..

closer to the music Vol.4 NEW: SACD/CD (Stereo)

There were so many positive and even enthusiastic feedbacks on our „closer to the music“ compilations volume 1 to 3, that we decided to release Vol.4 in 2011. And again this 4th compilation offers both a selection from current releases and presentations of artists and albums that will be released by Stockfisch Records in the next months. closer to the music Vol.4 offers more than 73 minutes of musical highlights to get in first touch with Stockfisch artists as well as sound and/or just for enjoyable listening.

The AYA - "Are you Authentic" is an association whose members are dedicated to the aim of providing an authentic musical experience in cars. "Are you Authentic" campaigns for "real" and "natural" sound reproduction. Together with Stockfisch Records they developed this SACD, with which the sound of (car-)hi-fi systems can be critically judged, and which therefore allows the most objective possible comparison of different systems. These tracks – some newly mixed, others specially recorded for this SACD – were selected to optimize sound systems if necessary.

Allan Taylor - Songs for the Road SACD-Maxi/CD Enhanced

During the HIGHEND exposition in Munich Allan Taylor happened to get to know Dieter Burmester, head of Burmester Audiosystems. Dieter told him about the sound system that he had designed for the new Porsche Panamera. It was then that Allan told Dieter his story of why he had bought a Porsche and that he had written a song about the true story behind. For this reason Stockfisch recorded together with Dieter Burmester and Allan a five track MAXI containing also the song "A Promise and a Porsche".

Mike Silver - heaven in mind CD

This fine, superb sounding CD – made even more admirable by contributions from Chris Jones and other musicians – is in fact an almost typical Stockfisch publication. As a work of art rich in content, Mike Silver’s new work cannot be compared to anyone else’s so far. On his new album the sensitive singer and poet gives a close analysis of the state of human relationships and puts them in the shape of sophisticated melodies.
